STOCKS.

A San Francisco dispatch to the Chronicle of last evening sets forth the general feeling in stock circles after the holiday rest as follows: There was a hopeful feeling at the opening of business this morning, and a considerable advance over last Wednesday's prices took place in several quarters. The recent heavy bullion shipments from the old bonanzas and the reported improvement in Belcher, no doubt, have much to do with this advance. California passed the $4 point once more, with indications of staying. Con. Virginia was also strong, but Belcher was the pet speculation of the hour, the character of the purchases, perhaps even more than the reports from the mine, giving it strength.

The advance in Belcher continued at the 11 o'clock Board, and it touched 4 25 at the close. The north end stocks were generally steady.

Lady Bryan has levied a 50 cent assessment. The delinquency on North Bonanza assessment has been postponed to January 9th.

Following are the latest street quotations: Union, 39; Ophir, 16 1/2; 17; Belcher, 3 1/2; California, 4; Imperial, 4; Sierra Nevada, 17; Scorpio, 2 9/16; Best & Belcher, 6 1/2; Jacket, 9 8/16; Union, 38; Mexican, 16 1/2; Hale & Norcross, 6 1/2; North Bonanza, 60; Utah, 3.90, 4.

The light flurry of snow of Sunday night has spoiled the skating, much to the disgust of the youngsters, and the oldsters too, for that matter.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.—At San Francisco prices, can be had on easy terms at the rooms of the Reform Club. Mr. Vann will give personal attention to customers, and explain the peculiarities of the various makes. All instruments fully guaranteed and shipped direct from Kohler & Chase, San Francisco. No agency, no profits to middlemen and no risk. Instruments sold on easy installments and old ones taken in exchange. The Decker piano, which is better than the Steinway or Webber, is just the thing for Christmas, and can be forwarded $150 cheaper than any piano in the market. d16-1f

The best New Year present is a Steinway Piano, which can be bought on easy installments from F. J. Jessup of Virginia, or Mr. F. A. Hentchel of Carson. All pianos sold by either of the above parties come direct here from the New York factory. By buying of him one gets goods directly from the manufacturing house, and avoids the "drummers."

Now that the cold weather is upon us every man, woman and child in Carson will want a good, thick pair of gloves, not so much for style as for warmth. M. W. Hodkins, opposite the Arlington House, makes the best on the coast. His hand sewed buck gloves are a specialty. d23-1m

THE PLACE TO GO.—If you want a good square meal, go to Hunt's New Chop Stand, opposite the V. & T. R. R. depot, Calimberti's building, No. 76. d18-1m

THE SACK.

HOW IT IS ALREADY BEGINNING TO EFFECT CARSON—A PROPOSAL TO MEET GREEK WITH GREEK—A PILL FOR SHARON

A gentleman called at the APPEAL office yesterday morning and announced that he wanted to see the editor privately on special business. He was granted a star chamber audience and showed a small slip of paper which briefly set forth that seal skin saques were unhealthy.

DEATH TO THE SACK.

"What I want is this," said he, "Can't you manage some way to give this idea more prominence. This item was tucked away in a small newspaper and few women have seen it. Write up some strong item to the effect that the cause of yellow fever in the South and pneumonia in Bodie can be directly traced to the use of seal skin cloaks. I want to get up some sort of a panic in the seal skin market that will abolish these infernal seal skins. Every year my wife wants a new seal skin cloak and so does my oldest daughter. I have five daughters and as they grow up they will want seal skins. The outlook is something fearful to contemplate. In a few years the Sheriff's flag will be flaunted from my place of business."

PROFESSOR TYNDALL'S VIEWS.

Sitting down, the editor dashed off the following: Professor Tyndall, in a recent letter to the Royal Academy of Sciences, London, announces that the germs of consumption, malarial fever, small pox, itch and the black plague are generated from seal skin cloaks, also premature old age, baldness and a falling out of the teeth. All this comes from diseased seals. The mortality during the past year has been frightful among the seals, and the forthcoming crop of seal skins will, if not destroyed, sweep the human race from the face of the earth. This is a matter of serious import and deserves the careful attention of the scientific world.

A CORRUPTION FUND.

The man was more than pleased with the effort, and said that if the APPEAL inaugurated a fight against seal skin saques he knew where he could raise $100,000 as a campaign fund to carry on the good work. Sharon's Senatorial sack would be nowhere. "My friend," said he quite elated, "it will be the canvass sack against the seal skin saque, and we'll see which sack is the largest. He cast down a loose handful of twenties on the table and said he was going out to get married men to subscribe more money.

He returned in about an hour with the announcement that his wife had just ordered a saque apiece for herself and the eldest daughter at Olcovich's and the bill was $750. He proposes to kill Olcovich before night.

A CHALLENGE.—The puzzle, which drove an Emerald teamster crazy, is creating considerable of a sensation throughout the State. The following challenge appears in the Tuscarora Times-Review, and is reprinted in the APPEAL to give some sporting men an opportunity of enjoying a big gamble:

EDITOR TIMES-REVIEW.—It has been going the rounds of the press that a gentleman in Paris has offered 20,000 francs to any one who will draw the annexed figure with a pen or pencil without lifting either from the paper, or interfering with any portion of a line previously made:

I notice that a number of writers have expressed the opinion that the offer was a hoax, and that the feat was an impossibility. I will bet any sum, from two hundred to five thousand dollars, that I will produce a man, now living in Tuscarora, who will draw the figure in accordance with the above stipulations, at any named time after the bet is accepted. Parties meaning business can be accommodated by addressing me at this place, or they can make their arrangements through the editor of the Times-Review.

E. H. HURLEY.

Tuscarora, Dec. 26th, 1879.
As every one must by this time be familiar with the outlines of the puzzle, the APPEAL does not propose to print them again. If any reader does not know the outlines he has but to ask his neighbor and find out. The APPEAL is of the opinion that E. H. Hurley, if such a man exists, is making a bluff for his own amusement. John R. Wilkinson of this city called at the APPEAL office this morning and stated that he would take Harley's bet if he means business, and put up a check for $5,000 or more if necessary. All he desires to know is that the challenge in the Times Review is bona fide.

DEATH OF MISS NELLIE CROCKER.—Many people in Carson who knew Miss Crocker will read the above with feelings of surprise and regret. The young lady died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Walker, in New York city, on Saturday evening last, December 27th. The immediate cause of her death is not stated, but she had been in delicate health for some time past. Miss Crocker had visited her relatives in Carson so frequently that she leaves a large circle of friends and acquaintances here to mourn her sudden death, just as life was opening before her with promise of much happiness in store. Her mother will receive a great deal of sympathy for this sad loss, coming to her in her declining years. The remains will be brought to Sacramento for burial.

ARRIVALS.—The following passengers arrived per southern stage Sunday and yesterday afternoon: John Kendall, G. Gunter, L. Vann, N. Nathan, Tom Conden, J. Estep, G. W. Stuart.

LEAP YEAR.

THE GENTLEMEN PROPOSE TO RECEIVE ON THURSDAY NEXT.

The coming year being leap year (1880, divide by four you can) the young ladies have determined not to receive, but instead will reverse the usual custom and call on the gentlemen. Of course the gentlemen with their usual gallantry, will provide the festive board with the good things, gastronomic, and entertain all callers—that is those who come at reasonable hours and keep sober. If a crowd of ladies should invade a man's premises at midnight, pull the handle of the door bell off, yell "Whoop la," and sing "Whoa Emma," and "We Won't go Home till Morning," a man could not be expected to receive. Such a consummation of the proposed plan might happen in Virginia City, but never in Carson. The idea of having gentlemen "receive" is a good one and would be productive of an endless amount of fun all round. It would vary the monotony of the usual stupidity of New Year's calling and give the men a chance to show what they consider style. The APPEAL will publish a list on New Year's morning of those who receive. It has already quite an array of names. Gentlemen who propose to keep open house will send us their address before Wednesday evening.

IN A BAD CORNER.—The other day a lodger at a private house received a notice from his landlady to pack up his things and get out of the house.

"Why is this?" he asked, with a look of innocent surprise.

"I have found some suspicious articles of female wearing apparel in your room, sir."

"Oh, my dear madam, I am making these articles for the Ladies' Aid society. They are to be shipped to the heathen in Africa and the poor in New York. In a few months they will be wafted across the illimitable ocean and deposited by the loving hands of Christians on the golden sands of the coast of Madagascar, where the people who grope in darkness can be illuminated by the gospel's kindly light, and clothed like Christians. Here is a magnificent opportunity for a philanthropic soul like yours."

"Look a here, young man, check yourself up: I've met your kind before. These auburn curls and chignons are not the sort of fixings necessary to shed light on the heathen, although I am willing to admit that a girl with hair as red as that could light up Africa from the cape of Good Hope to Egypt."

The young man, instead of arguing the point, began to pack his trunk immediately.

THE COLD WAVE.—The cold snap appears to have lost most of its vitality and people are enabled to sleep nights without taking warm bricks and bottles of hot water to bed with them. The thermometer has resumed its old status and the snow under foot no longer gives out the sharp, crisp sound when trodden on, thoroughly indicative of intense cold. The genial sun has already begun to inaugurate a thaw and the streets furnish the usual allowance of mud. The "cold wave," which all the papers are talking about, has utterly subsided and effected no material damage except the wholesale destruction of house plants. Hundreds of women contemplate this sad result, and refuse to be comforted. How people can fix their affections on sightless old stalks that never under the most skillful treatment produce either leaves or flowers, is a mystery to the ordinary mind. House plants, as a rule, are sickly, unsightly affairs, and make more trouble in a family than a stranger taken in to board. Men who are roused up at all hours of the night to look after consumptive geraniums and decrepit Chinese lilies and wrap them in ulsters, will rejoice that the cold wave has completed its work of destruction in so thorough and decided a manner.

THE FESTIVAL OF HOLY INNOCENCE.—The Episcopal church was crowded on Sunday evening, it being Holy Innocence day, and devoted to the children of the parish. The services consisted of some musical exercises by the different classes in which the little ones acquitted themselves very creditably. The Rector made a short address on the character of the holiday celebrated, after which carols were sung and the gifts of the ladies of the parish to the children were distributed. The Rector in the course of his remarks alluded to the fact that the children who did not attend the Sunday School very regularly during the year were in the habit of flocking in before Christmas that they might have a claim on the distribution of presents. This, however, was only natural and he did not particularly blame them, but hoped that there would be no falling off after the holidays.

RAFFLE.—D. Cires won the highest prize, a lady's workbox, at the raffle on Saturday night, throwing 46. George Hall and Robert Anderson each threw 21, the lowest, and tied for second prize, a music box, playing six tunes. Welly Stewart threw 43, second highest, and took the meerschaum cigar holder and the fourth prize, a meerschaum pipe, was captured by Hank Monk with a throw of 23.

In the list of officers installed in the Masonic Lodge No. 1, the name of Rev. Geo. R. Davis, chaplain, was inadvertently omitted by the APPEAL on Sunday.

A COMPLAINT FROM PRITCHARD.—John T. Pritchard, now confined in the County Jail under sentence of death, sent for an APPEAL reporter yesterday morning and asked for an interview. He said that he did not wish it understood that he had ever solicited any favors of the public or the newspapers. He does not even want it understood that he ever solicited reading matter from anybody, yet he would not refuse contributions of this kind. He claims that the press has combined against him to destroy him. He thinks that he has never injured anybody in the world and that he has been sold out by his attorney, witnesses and everybody else. He does not think the Court gave him any show and considers himself the victim of spite and malicious prosecution. His appeal for a new trial will be heard on the 5th of January.

CORNHAGEN TO-NIGHT.—All persons of literary tastes will remember that to-night Miss Solter will deliver her lecture on life in Copenhagen at the Sunday school-room of St. Peter's church. This accomplished Danish lady has made many friends in Carson, and her lectures deserve a warm patronage for their intrinsic value as excellent portrayals of life among her people. They abound in condensed bits of history and bright sparkles of wit. Go and hear her to-night.

PERSONAL.—Major Frank North, one of the most celebrated Indian scouts, arrived in town on Saturday. Major North has been among the Pawnee Indians for twenty-four years, and since 1865, when he was chief of scouts under General Connor, he has been on the war path against the Sioux. The Major visits this section for the benefit of his health. We sincerely trust that the climate of Carson may give him a new lease of life.

DEPARTURES.—The following persons departed on the southern stage Sunday and yesterday morning: Mrs. Durand and child, Mrs. Gallego, J. O'Leary, J. F. Norman, V. W. Brown, B. F. Butler and wife, J. W. Killen, Miss Mary Reed, Miss Nellie Reed, John Melver, H. C. Ward, H. G. Bladell, E. Watmore, M. P. Charles, J. Hoar, Miss Freytag, F. Claggage.

Mr. A. Livingston, Treasurer of Douglas County, has received the sad intelligence of the death of his father in Germany. He has the sympathy of many friends.

A pair of elegant single-stone diamond earrings, set on onyx, worth $250, price $135 at Uncle Harris', 221 Kearny street.

THE WORD "SOZODONT."

Which has already become a household word, is derived from the Greek, and composed of two words, Sozo and Odontes. "Sozo," translated, means to preserve, and "Odontes" the teeth—"SOZODONT" a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. It beautifies and preserves the teeth, hardens and invigorates the gums, and corrects all impurities of the breath. The odor of this pure preparation is so delightful that it is a luxury to apply it. It is as harmless as water. Sold by druggists and perfumers. d12-1m

DANCING SCHOOL.—Professor H. C. Schubert has opened a dancing school here and will teach the art of dancing the coming Winter. He has secured Corbett's Hall, over Harris Brothers, and has already secured the patronage of some of the leading families of Carson. His terms can be had on application. d22-1m

A man who enjoys good cigars, and is a judge of the article, will find it to his advantage to call at the Post Office Cigar Stand. None but the best are sold there.
